the Teachers' Salaries-Recent Notes of the Town. Every member of the school board was present at last evening's meeting, which was called to order by President Given at 8:20 o'clock. Minutes of last regular meeting were read and approved, after which the finance committee reported as

Balance in treasury...... $1,628 62

The superintending committee offered several recommendations, among the number being that the school term for 1884 85 be fixed at 8) months; that three new schools be organized, and that three schools be placed in the new l'oplar street building. The recommendations adopted.

The text book committee wanted the board to invite the superintendant and teachers to meet the board next Friday evening, and find out what new books will be adopted this term. It was so ordered

The repair and supply committee, through Mr. Slade, chairman, recommend-ed "that the janitor of the Cherry street and institute schools, be allowed extra pay when doing the necessary repairs which requires a carpenter." After the pros-and cons were discussed the recommendation was adopted.

The special building committee recom mended "that the finance committee negotiate and sell a sufficient number of the new bonds to pay the balance that will from time to time be due contractors. It was so ordered.

The committee on holding institute this important question, and bave decided that institutes should be held and made compulsory to the teachers, as they believe great benefit is derived from these meet ings. It was then unanimously agreed to hold institutes every two weeks, during the term, which will make 16 institutes eight half days, for which the board will pay for, the other eight half days are to be donated by the teachers.

The board then came to new business and arranged the schools, of which there will be twenty four. After this they elected the following teachers. The salary set opposite their names is per

TEXAS DEMOCRATS.

CHILLED BY TILDEN'S WITHDRAWAL His Letter Declining the Nomination Acts as no les Water Bath on Bis Loue Star Admirers.

FORT WORTH, Texas June 13 .- In the Texas Democratic convention, after midnight, Wednesday, in the midst of the balloting for delegates - at large, Mr. Tilden's letter of declination addressed to Mr. Manning was read before the convention. Prior to this moment the convention had been wildly cuthusiastic for Tilden and the "old ticket," and the letter chilled the convention, the delegates being unable to exhibit their usual enthusiasm after bearing the letter.

! | When the convention reassembled in the morning, the delegates had not recovered from the depressing effect of Mr. Tilden's letter. A motion to reconsider yesterday' vote instructing the delegates to vote for Tilden and Hendricks was tabled by a vote of 301 to 182. Notwithstanding the defeat of this, motion a resolution was immediately adopted requesting the delegates to use their own judgment in the selection

The delegates at large to Chicago and the district delegates were then elected. The Democratic state convention to nominate a governor and other state officers meets August 19, at Austin.

RIOTING THREATENED

Great Excitement in Brussells Over the De leat of the Liberal Party. BRUSSELLS, June 13,—The excitement resulting from the Liberal defeat on Tues day has not yet altogether passed away. The streets last night were througed with turbulent crowds singing and shouting themselvs hoarse, but the police suc ceeded in dispersing them without the occurrence of riotous demonstrations. There is a lull in the storm to-day, but further rioting is expected to occur on Sunday, when the Corpus Christi proces-sion takes place. What a Woman Can Do. Indianapoits Times.

She can say "No," and stick to it for all time. She can also say "No," in such a low, soft voice that it means "Yes." She can sharpen a lead pencil if you give her plenty of time and plenty of pencils. She can dance all night in a pair of shoes two sizes too small for her and enjoy every minute of the time. She can pass a display window of a draper's shop without stopping—if she is running to catch a train. She can walk half the night with a noisy baby in her arms without once expressing a desire to murder the infant.

She can appreciate a kiss from her husband seventy-five years after the marriage ceremony has taken place. She can suffer abuse and neglect for years, which one touch of kindness or consideration will drive away from her recollection. She can go to church and afterward tell you will drive away from her recollection. She can go to church and afterward tell you what every woman in the congregation had on, and some rare instances can give a faint idea of what the text was. She can look her husband square in the eye when he tells her some cock-and-bull story about being "detained at the office," without betraying in the least that she knows him to be a colossal liar.

She can—but what's the use? A woman She can-but what's the use? A woma bow down to her own sweet will and they will never know it. Yes, a woman can do everything with but one exception; she cannot climb a tree. WEATHER INDICATIONS.
